FASTWEB: Peter Burmeister new CFO

Milan, 9th April 2009 -- FASTWEB S.p.A. (Milan, MTAX: FWB), Italy's second-largest fixed telecommunications services provider, announces that as of 1st July 2009 Peter Burmeister will be the new Chief Financial Officer and will be charged with the preparation of the Company financial reports.

Mario Rossi, who has been FASTWEB's CFO since the completion of the Swisscom public tender offer in May 2007, will return to Switzerland where he will become head of Business Steering for Swisscom Switzerland. Previously Mario Rossi had been CFO of Swisscom Fixnet for four years and thus has a profound knowledge of Swisscom.

"On behalf of FASTWEB I would like to thank Mario Rossi for his contribution during these two years. Mario Rossi is a person of great value who became perfectly integrated in FASTWEB and who gave a very important professional contribution to the Company" said Stefano Parisi, Chief Executive Officer of FASTWEB. "We are convinced that Peter Burmeister will continue this track record thanks to his renowned professionalism".

Peter Burmeister, German, 45 years old, degree in industrial engineering, has covered roles of responsibility in many European companies including Mannesmann Hartmann & Braun, SMS Demag and DPD GeoPost. During his career, Peter Burmeister was Managing Director of SMS Demag in Italy for six years.
