

FASTWEB: Calendar of 2010 Company Events - Update

Milan, 9 March 2010 – FASTWEB (Milan, MTAX: FWB) communicates that the Calendar of Company Events for the year 2010 previously issued on 13 January 2010 has been amended with reference to the Shareholders Meeting.

According to the Code of Internal Dealing, approved by Fastweb's Board of Directors on 4 November 2008, the Company introduced black out periods which are aligned with those set forth by its parent company Swisscom. Black out periods are the periods during which certain persons must abstain from carrying out transactions on Company shares or related financial instruments. In line with Swisscom, Fastweb also introduced quiet periods during which it will abstain from communicating information on quarterly financial results to analysts and investors before the approval of such results. As with Swisscom, the quiet periods coincide with the black out periods.
