

All matches on Sky Italia pitches and all 2006 World Cup matches

FASTWEB offers Soccer at 9 Euro per month

Milan, 6 September 2005 – Everything a soccer fan could want, match by match, including advance and deferred matches, and live goals. Not to mention the 64 matches in Germany next summer during the 2006 World Cup. All this at just 9 Euro per month for subscribers to FASTWEB TV which, for the third year running, is to broadcast all the matches to which SKY Italia holds rights.

FASTWEB's cable digital TV offers a wide choice of sport content.

In addition to the SKY Calcio package, which can be purchased individually and debuts this month in the new "super-competitive" version for a monthly fee of 9 Euro, FASTWEB TV is offering SKY Sport at 16 Euro for the entire soccer season. The package comprises all the top matches (evening advance matches and deferred matches from SKY pitches, plus a division A match played in the afternoon of each week-end, as well as the entire UEFA Champions League), together with the main European soccer championships, basketball, volleyball, tennis, cycling, athletics, golf and rugby.

For soccer addicts, FASTWEB also offers the Milan Channel, Inter Channel and Roma Channel dedicated channels at a monthly fee of 8 Euro per channel.

For subscribers to ONtv – the FASTWEB TV on-demand bouquet which, at 8 Euro a month, gives free use of a decoder and access to 8 on-demand channels for the entire family with a library of more than 1,000 programs free from scheduling constraints – FASTWEB also offers the following options:

- Championship matches on SKY Italia pitches on a pay per view basis, at just 5 Euro per game;

- "Week end calcio", with all the matches in a division A day, at 10 Euro.

 the offers are available on new subscriptions until the end of September*
