

FASTWEB statement

Milan, 6 February 2007 – FASTWEB CEO Stefano Parisi confirmed yesterday to the news agency Radiocor the possibility that FASTWEB will pay a dividend in 2007.

The company, that achieved free cash flow in fourth quarter 2006, has the financial capability to support a distribution also in 2007 and to invest in new commercial and technological opportunities. Currently, the debt is at a conservative level, at approximately 2 times EBITDA. Stefano Parisi also confirmed the company interest towards Wi-Max technology and Mobile Virtual Network Operator (MVNO).

For further information

Giovanna Guzzetti
Media Relations
T: 02 4545 2360
F: 02 4545 2366
giovanna.guzzetti@fastweb.it

Paolo Lesbo
Analysts and Investors
T: 02 4545 4308
F: 02 4545 2333
paolo.lesbo@fastweb.it